Mr. Karel G. Gertsacov
67 Beacon Circle
Cranston, Rhode Island 02910

Dear Mr. Gertsacov:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for sending me a copy of your letter to President Bush regarding the importance of the arts in the core curriculum.

I could not agree more with your point that the arts are integral to our lives and should therefore be considered a core educational subject.

Your kind thoughts are very much appreciated, and I am delighted that you have brought this important point to my attention.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts & Humanities
